

We are your neighbours, your family, your friends.

Please vote YES with us on May 25.

YES for CARE.

YES for COMPASSION.

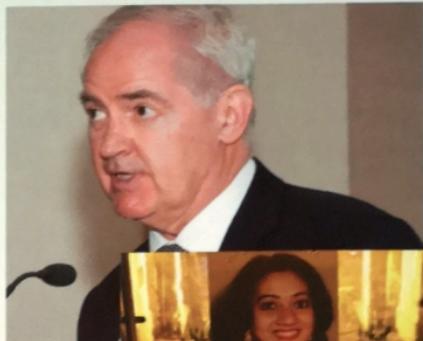

YES for CHANGE.

YES for the women you love.

That a woman should not die in pregnancy is the absolute lowest bar we should aim for in a modern, civilised country. Savita should be alive today and we should have never heard of her. Savita's father is right to ask the Irish people to repeal the 8th in her memory.

— Dr Peter Boylan

Chair of the Institute of Obstetricians and Gynaecologists and Former Master of the National Maternity Hospital

Someone is going to die in their bathroom. I am lucky. I have a good man in my life who would have had to make the emergency call for me if I needed it. Others don't.

— Marian

Limerick, 38 year old mother of 2, who took abortion pills

The 8th Amendment creates unacceptable risk. As a doctor I must advocate that we do everything we can to ensure women in this country are safe and that they access healthcare that keeps them safe.

— Dr Rhona Mahony

Master of the National Maternity Hospital
