

UNITE MEMBERS: CALLING TIME ON HARASSMENT IN HOSPITALITY

Join the campaign for safe workplace

CAMPAIGN LAUNCH:

Venue: The tap room in Ulster sports club
7pm, Monday 2nd June

Every worker deserves to feel safe at work –
and get home safely.

From bartenders and waiters to chefs and cleaners, we're fighting for:

- Free, late-night transport for hospitality workers
- Make free transport a condition of every new liquor and entertainment licence!

For a zero tolerance policy
on workplace harassment

NOT A HOSPITALITY WORKER?

1. Pass it on

Rip off the bottom of this leaflet. Hand it to a hospitality worker this weekend. Encourage them to scan the QR code, fill in our survey, and join Unite Hospitality.

2. Spread the word

Like, share, and follow us @UniteHospoNI.

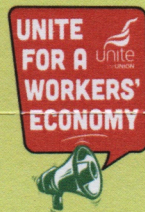

Want one of our activists to speak at your union branch?

Contact: neil.moore@unitetheunion.org

3. Be an ally

- Call out abuse and harassment wherever you see it.
 - Ask workers if they receive their tips — and always tip in cash.
- Stormont still hasn't delivered #FairTips legislation!

Rip It. Scan It. Join It.

1. Take our survey

Scan the QR code and share your experiences. Leave your details to get more involved!

2. Join the launch event

Meet other workers and have your say:

Monday 2nd June, 7pm @ the tap room bar in Ulster sports club

3. Know your rights — and enforce them

Scan the QR code to join Unite Hospitality, or text "JOIN" with your name and workplace to 07810157911.

4. Get organised

Fair pay and conditions aren't given — they're won. Join us to organise your workplace, build worker power, and demand the respect you deserve. Scan the QR code and join Unite!
